PART 2: Designation of Primary Beneficiaries

I hereby designate the following beneficiaries as primary beneficiaries to receive payment of the value of my IRA, following my death. If the primary beneficiary is my estate, I will indicate Estate in the primary beneficiary section.

I hereby designate the benefit percentages to each beneficiary listed below, which total to 100%. If more than one beneficiary is named and for any reason percentages are not indicated, payment shall be made in equal shares to the primary beneficiaries who survive me. If a percentage is indicated for a primary beneficiary that does not survive me, that beneficiary's designated share shall be divided equally among the surviving primary beneficiaries. If for any reason the percentages do not add up to 100% at the time of my death, payment shall be made to the primary beneficiaries who survive me in proportion to the designations made. Payment to primary beneficiaries will be made according to the applicable rules of succession and the IRA Custodial Agreement.

If you need more space to add beneficiaries, write the required information on the back of the form. Share Percentages must be in whole numbers only and must total 100%.

If you are married and live in a community or marital property state (including but not limited to AZ, CA, ID, LA, NM, NV, TX, WA, or WI) and are not naming your spouse as 100% primary beneficiary, spousal consent may be required. It is the account owner's responsibility to determine if spousal consent is required. Please consult a tax or financial professional. By signing below I certify the following: I am the spouse of the above-named account owner. I acknowledge that I have received a fair and reasonable disclosure of my spouse's property and financial obligations.
